Principal Speaks

“Who will guard the guards themselves?” asked Juvenal in one of his Satires. In fact the work of the IQAC of an educational institution is to “guard the guards”. If we, teachers, mentor all aspect of our pupils, the IQAC mentors us. And such newsletters as this are documents of such mentoring in paper and ink.

I wish the IQAC and its newsletter, 'The Horizon' every success.

The IQAC Resolution

It is an endeavour of the IQAC to promote shared values, expectations and commitments among the students and staff of this college. The object of the IQAC is to augment the institutional, cultural and educational quality of the College by introducing a participatory environment and encouraging critical thinking.
